

Ingersoll Nurse Practitioner-Led Clinic

PRACTITIONER CODE OF CONDUCT – OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

As your primary health care provider, we understand our responsibility and commitment to provide quality healthcare and as your practitioners...

RESPECT

We will treat patients and families with respect, including respect for cultural and sexual diversity.

SAFETY

We will create a safe, healthy, secure and respectful environment through the prevention of violent, abusive or aggressive behaviour.

VOICE

We will provide our patients with a means of expressing their opinions, positive or negative, about their healthcare experience.

QUALITY

We will provide our patients with high quality, up to date, evidence-based care and services.

ENGAGEMENT & PARTICIPATION

We will encourage, support, and enable patients to be active participants in their health care and health care decision making.
